

DEFYING OR LIVING UP TO STEREOTYPES

In Inherit the Wind, you will be introduced to several characters. Take notes about the characters, their behaviors, and quotes to evaluate how they defy a stereotype or live up to it.

TOWNSPEOPLE of Hillsboro

Melinda, Howard, Ms. Blair, Ms. McClain, Elijah, etc.

Stereotypes of people from Tennessee:

How do they fit the stereotype?

How do they surprise us or defy the stereotype?

Notable quotes (and page numbers)

Bert Cates

Stereotypes of school teachers:
Stereotypes of boy friends

How does he fit the stereotype?

How does he surprise us or defy the stereotype?

Notable quotes (and page numbers)

E.K. Hornbeck

Stereotypes of journalists:

How does he fit the stereotype?

How does he surprise us or defy the stereotype?

Notable quotes (and page numbers)

Reverend Brown

Stereotypes of reverends:

How does he fit the stereotype?

How does he surprise us or defy the stereotype?

Notable quotes (and page numbers)

Rachel Brown

Stereotypes of reverends' children:

Stereotypes of teachers:

How does she fit the stereotypes?

How does she surprise us or defy the stereotypes?

Notable quotes (and page numbers)

Matthew Harrison Brady

Stereotypes of lawyer from Nebraska:

Stereotypes of politicians:

How does he fit the stereotypes?

How does he surprise us or defy the stereotypes?

Notable quotes (and page numbers)

Henry Drummond

Stereotypes of lawyer from Chicago

How does he fit the stereotype?

How does he surprise us or defy the stereotype?

Notable quotes (and page numbers)

